

Rhythm: 4/4 & 6/8 Tempo: x# Strum: Edinburgh 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4

INTRO

Count-In: 1 2 3 4

C Humba humba, C Humba humba, C Humba humba, C! Humba **↓

Verse [1]

g e g

⇒ On the

C bank C of the C river stood C Running F Bear young F Indian C brave. C On the C other C side of the C river C stood his D7 lovely D7 Indian G7 maid. G7 Little
C White Dove C was-a C her name C such a F lovely F sight to C see. C But their
C tribes fought with each C other, C so their G7 love G7 could never C be. C! [6/8] **↓

CHORUS

[6/8 vamping]

⇒ Running

F Bear F loved C Little C White Dove C with a G7 love G7 big as the C sky C Running
F Bear F loved C Little C White Dove C with a G7 love that G7 couldn't C! ^{4/4} die C! C! C! **↓

Verse [2]

[4/4]

⇒ He couldn't

C swim C the raging C river C cause the F river F was too C wide. C He couldn't
C reach C Little C White Dove C waiting D7 on D7 the other G7 side. G7 In the C moonlight C he could C see her C throwing F kisses F 'cross the C waves. C Her little
C heart C was beating C faster C waiting G7 there G7 for her C brave. C! [6/8] **↓

Chorus

[6/8]

Running Bear

Verse [3] [4/4]

↳ Running

C Bear C dove in the C water, C Little F White Dove F did the C same. C And they
C swam C out to each C other, C through the D7 swirling D7 stream they G7 came. G7 As their
C hands touched and their C lips met C the raging F river F pulled them C down. C Now they'll
C a- C -lways be to-gether C in that G7 ha- G7 -ppy hunting C ground. C! [6/8]

Chorus [6/8]

OUTRO [4/4]

C Humba humba, C Humba humba, C Humba humba, C! Humba

